1. Introduction

At Trenitalia c2c Ltd we take your privacy seriously. We are committed to being transparent about how we collect and use your data and in meeting our data protection obligations in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). This Privacy Notice describes our privacy practices and approach regarding the collection and use of any personal data we collect about you.

We will process your personal data in accordance with this Privacy Notice, unless such processing conflicts with the requirements of applicable law, in which case, applicable law will prevail.

By submitting your personal data to us, you acknowledge that:

- you have read and understood this Privacy Notice and agree to the use of your personal data as set out
- your personal data may be transferred and processed, for the purposes and in the manner specified in this Privacy Notice
- you are not required to provide any requested information to us, but failing to do so may result in you not being able to continue your candidacy for the job for which you have applied
- all of your representations are true and correct to the best of your knowledge and belief, and you have not knowingly omitted any related information of an adverse nature. Providing any inaccurate information may make you ineligible for employment

Trenitalia c2c Ltd reserves the right to modify this Notice by posting changes to our website. If you submit additional Candidate Data or request to be considered for a Trenitalia c2c Ltd position following the effective date of a modified Notice, your Candidate Data will be handled in accordance with the Notice in effect at that time.

2. Data Protection Principles

c2c complies with its obligations under GDPR in relation to your personal data. This includes:

- processing your data fairly, lawfully and in a clear, transparent way
- collecting your data only for specified, explicit purposes during and after your employment in ways that have been explained to you
- only using your data in the way that we have told you about
- ensuring your data is correct and up to date
- keeping your data for only as long as we need it
- protecting your data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure
- storing and destroying it securely

3. Your rights in relation to your personal data

We take reasonable steps that are designed to keep your personal data accurate, complete, and up-to-date for the purposes for which it is collected and used. We also have implemented measures that are designed to ensure that our processing of your personal data complies with this Privacy Notice and applicable law. You have the right to:

- be informed on how we use your data, and this is the purpose of this Privacy Notice
- access the data that we hold on you
- have any inaccuracies be corrected
- have information deleted from our systems where you believe there is no reason for us to continue processing it restrict the processing of the data. For example, if you believe the data we hold is incorrect, we will stop processing the data (whilst still holding it) until we have ensured that the data is correct portability for the transfer of the data we hold for your own purposes object to the way we use your data where we are using it for our legitimate interests regulate any automated decision-making and profiling of personal data

Where you have provided consent to our use of your data, you also have the unrestricted right to withdraw that consent at any time. There will be no consequences for withdrawing your consent. However, in some cases, we may continue to use the data were so permitted by having a legitimate or legal reasons.

If you wish to exercise any of the rights explained above, please contact c2c’s Data Protection Officer.
